

TEONA ZAK

Teona Zak is a contemporary pop artist whose style incorporates soulful, bluesy, vulnerable, emotive and unique tones. She started singing at eight years old, and began songwriting at fourteen, when she wrote and released her first original "Monster."

She graduated Berklee college of music in 2023 and has been continuing to release original music on all platforms and also gigging around the east coast. She recently just moved to LA and is currently working on her new EP.

Aside from writing and releasing music, she has also performed live at major events, such as the national anthem at the Bruins game.
